The spreadsheets list election returns by election. For each election, the columns are organized by: party; party leader; votes; percentage of vote; deputies by province (for however many provinces there are in the region); total deputies.

Below are notes that describe how the government was formed.

NOTE: The Spanish standard is to use the period (.) as the thousands separator and the comma (,) as the decimal point.